Article I: Title
The name of the advisory council within the University of Colorado Denver Student Government Association (CU Denver SGA) will be College Council. College Council will bridge the gap between the schools on the Denver campus.

Article II: Purpose
College Council will provide recommendations as an advisory council to the CU Denver SGA, and act as liaisons between their respective schools/colleges to this governing body.

Article III: Membership
A. Membership of the College Council shall consist of seven (7) students representing the following schools/colleges:
   - College of Architecture and Planning
   - College of Arts and Media
   - School of Business
   - School of Education and Human Development
   - College of Engineering and Applied Sciences
   - College of Liberal Arts and Science
   - School of Public Affairs
B. College Council representatives shall be nominated by the deans of each school or college and must be confirmed by the Senate in accordance with Senate Procedures. College Council positions can be filled by appointment by the Executive Branch three (3) weeks into the fall semester.
C. Should a vacancy occur, an open position shall be filled by the executive committee.
D. The ex-officio members from the Executive, Legislative, and Judicial Branch are acceptable, however they hold no voting rights within the College Council.

Article IV: Officers
A. The officers of the College Council shall consist of the chairperson and the vice-chair position. The ex-officio member shall not hold an officer position.
B. The chair of College Council, who shall be a voting member of the Senate, and shall rotate annually among the represented schools and colleges.
C. The chairperson shall preside over all meetings of the College Council, and shall have the following duties and responsibilities:
   a. Set the order of business including coordinating, motions and agenda items at all College Council meetings.
   b. Shall send the finalized agenda and related material no later than 48 hours prior to the meeting. Changes to the finalized agenda must be made through amendment at the College Council meeting.
   c. Report College Council activities through a written or oral report to the senate.
D. The chairperson shall have no voting rights, and shall vote only in case of a tie.
E. The vice-chairperson shall be nominated among the council membership, and approved by majority of the council. This position is not required to rotate annually.
F. The vice-chairperson will fulfill the duties of the chairpersons in the event of their absence; maintain all responsibilities of the chairperson for the duration of their absence. When acting as a chairperson, the vice-chairperson retains voting rights only in the case of a tie.

Article V: Duties and Responsibilities
A. College Council is required to fill all duties and responsibilities outlined in the CU Denver SGA constitution and Senate Bylaws.
B. College Council members will meet with deans, Faculty, Administration, or Students of their respective college to determine pertinent issues/information that needs to be addressed by CU Denver SGA.
C. College Council members will act as liaisons between the CU Denver SGA and the deans, facility, administration, and students of their respective school/college.

Article VI: Attendance & Meetings
A. All members of College Council are expected to adhere to the attendance policy set forth in the Senate Bylaws Article II Section E.
B. The College Council Chairperson will designate College Council meeting times and locations.
C. Quorum for College Council meetings shall be considered a simple majority of voting members.
D. Public notice of time and location of all College Council shall be posted in the CU Denver SGA office and/or the CU Denver SGA website.
E. The College Council chairperson holds the authority to call for an emergency meeting in accordance with C.R.S. 24-6-402.
   a. Failure to attend an emergency meeting shall not be considered an absence.

Article VII: Amendments and Adoption of Bylaws
Any amendment to these bylaws must be passed by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of both the College Council and subsequently, by the CU Denver SGA.

Adopted by the University of Colorado Denver Student Government Association on Friday,