Introduction

Purpose
To ensure that all authorizations as required by HIPAA contain specified elements in order for them to be considered valid for the use or disclosure of Protected Health Information (PHI). UCD may not use or disclose PHI without a valid authorization from an individual or his or her representative, except as otherwise permitted or required and described within this policy or other UCD HIPAA policies. Use or disclosure of PHI must be consistent with what is included in the valid authorization and for the specified purpose.

Reference
45 C.F.R. § 164.508

Applicability
It is the responsibility of anyone who uses or discloses PHI to follow this policy and ensure that a valid authorization has been obtained, except as otherwise permitted or required by this policy or other UCD HIPAA policies, prior to the use or disclosure of PHI as described in the valid authorization.

This policy applies to obtaining a valid authorization for the use or disclosure of PHI, except as otherwise permitted or required by this policy or other UCD HIPAA policies.
Policy

The UCD has a standard format and guidelines for obtaining valid authorization for the use and disclosure of PHI. The UCD Authorization Form Template (attached) and Directions should be used to create all authorizations. If the template cannot be used, the following procedures must be followed. Exceptions to obtaining a written and valid authorization from the individual whose PHI is being used or disclosed are included in this and other UCD HIPAA policies.

Procedures

1. A valid authorization must contain the following elements:
   a. Specific description of the information to be used or disclosed;
   b. Name of person(s) or job title authorized to make the use or disclosure;
   c. Name of person(s), business name, or class of persons to whom UCD can make the requested use or disclosure;
   d. Description of each purpose of the requested use or disclosure;
   e. Expiration date or expiration event; and,
   f. Signature of the individual and date.

   If the authorization is signed by a personal representative, a description of the representative’s authority to act for the individual must also be provided.

2. A valid authorization must be written in plain language.

3. A valid authorization must contain statements adequate to place the individual on notice of all of the following:
   a. The individual’s right to revoke the authorization in writing and the exceptions to the right to revoke and a description of how the individual may revoke the authorization.

   b. A statement that:
      i. the UCD may not condition treatment, payment, enrollment or eligibility for benefits on whether the individual signs the authorization, if the UCD may not condition the authorization pursuant to UCD HIPAA Policy 3.4; or,
      ii. if the UCD may condition the authorization pursuant to UCD HIPAA Policy 3.4, the consequences to the individual of a refusal to sign the authorization; and,

   c. A statement that the potential exists for information disclosed via the authorization to be subject to redisclosure by the recipient of the information and therefore no longer protected by HIPAA.
4. UCD must provide the individual with a copy of the signed and dated authorization.

5. UCD must retain the authorization for six years following the date it was signed or was last in effect, whichever is later.

6. An individual may revoke an authorization at any time, provided that the revocation is in writing, except to the extent that UCD has taken action based on the authorization and prior to notice of revocation. (See UCD HIPAA Policy 3.5.) If revoked, the authorization is not valid and may not be used.

7. The UCD may not use the authorization if:
   a. The expiration date has passed or the expiration event is known by the UCD to have occurred;
   b. Any material information in the authorization is known by the UCD to be false;
   c. The authorization has not been filled out completely;
   d. The UCD knows that the authorization has been revoked;
   e. The authorization has been inappropriately combined with another document creating an improper compound authorization, or
   f. The authorization has been inappropriately conditioned in violation of UCD HIPAA Policy 3.4.

8. The UCD shall not use or disclose PHI without a valid authorization, except as otherwise permitted or required in this policy and other UCD HIPAA policies.

9. There are circumstances when a use or disclosure may be performed without valid authorization.
   a. Treatment, payment, or health care operations.
   c. When use or disclosure of PHI is required by law.

10. Compound Authorizations
    An authorization for use or disclosure of PHI may not be combined with any other document to create a compound authorization, except as follows:
        a. An authorization for the use or disclosure of PHI for a research study may be combined with any other type of written permission for the same research study, including another authorization for the use or disclosure of PHI for the research or a consent to participate in the research study;
        b. An authorization for the use or disclosure of psychotherapy notes may only be combined with another authorization for a use or disclosure of psychotherapy notes; and,
c. An authorization, other than an authorization for the use or disclosure of psychotherapy notes, may be combined with any other authorization except when UCD has conditioned the provision of treatment or payment, enrollment in a health plan, or eligibility for benefits on the provision of one of the authorizations.
