Registration Advance Payment

 Menu

All new University of Colorado Denver students taking classes on the Denver Campus are required to make a registration advance payment of $200.00 before they may register for classes. A student who has not attended classes for three semesters is considered new. A student may register for the semester once the registration advance payment is made. This advance payment will be applied to the semester's tuition and fees. The ONLY two exceptions to this requirement are:

- if the Financial Aid Office has received a student's FAFSA data, or
- if the student has not been admitted to an academic program at CU Denver and is only taking Extended Studies courses.

AMC students are not required to make this payment.

For more information, please visit <http://www.ucdenver.edu/student-services/resources/CostsAndFinancing/billing/bill/Pages/DCBillingGuide.aspx>

The button below will take you to our payment application so that you can complete this transaction. Your hold will be released immediately with a completed payment for the semester.
