

Susie Reithel came to the University of Colorado Denver as a Presidential Denver Bound Scholar in May 2006 following her graduation from Onalaska High School in Wisconsin. As a freshman, she declared a biology major with a minor in Spanish. As a sophomore, Susie was elected to the University of Colorado Denver Student Government Association and served for one year as a Public Relations Senator. In summer 2008, she studied abroad in Buenos Aires, Argentina to complete her Spanish minor while living with an Argentine host family through the IFSA-Butler International program. As a junior and senior, Susie worked part-time as a Certified Nursing Assistant at the University of Colorado Hospital Outpatient Surgery Unit. She completed internships as an Autopsy Technician Intern at the Arapahoe County Coroner's Office and as a MedVantage Volunteer Intern at the Exempla Lutheran Hospital Emergency Department. Her ongoing volunteer projects include working at the University of Colorado Hospital as well as working at local run/walks such as the AIDS walk and ALS walk. Her other interests include volleyball, snowboarding, and running races from 5Ks to marathons. Susie graduated in May of 2010 with the designation of Outstanding Undergraduate Finalist and accepted a full-time position at the University of Colorado Denver as a Professional Research Assistant in the department of anesthesiology. She has been accepted to the University of Wisconsin Madison School of Medicine and Public Health MD degree program and looks forward to entering medical school in August of 2011.
