Each of the required assignments this semester contributes to what you will gain from the course, so I expect that you will complete them all. Each exam will consist of one essay question and two identifications (80% and 20% respectively of each exam grade). For the 7-9 page essay on Walkowitz, Prostitution and Victorian Society, I will give you a handout 2-3 weeks in advance of the due date. Late essays will graded down one letter grade.

A grade of Incomplete is not granted for low academic performance. To be eligible for an Incomplete, students MUST (1) successfully complete a minimum of 75% of the course, (2) have special circumstances beyond their control that preclude them from attending class and completing graded assignments, and (3) make arrangements to complete missing assignments with the original instructor. Verification of special circumstances is required.

Cheating and plagiarism are not tolerated at the University of Colorado at Denver and Health Sciences Center. I expect that you will pledge for all your assignments that “on my honor, as a University of Colorado student, I have neither given nor received unauthorized assistance on this work.” The penalty for plagiarism or cheating on an exam is a ZERO for that assignment and possibly for the course. Plagiarism and cheating can be reported to the university administration and may result in expulsion from the university.

If you need to be absent in order to observe a religious holiday, please notify me early in the semester. Accommodations for makeup exams need to be scheduled in advance. If you need accommodation for a disability, please see me early in the semester.

If you are a student in the military with the potential of being called to military service and/or training during the course of the semester, you are encouraged to contact the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences Associate Dean or Advising Office immediately.

If you are sick or have an emergency that causes you to miss an exam or a due date, please contact me by e-mail, in advance if possible. When you return to class bring a note from your doctor or written evidence about other kinds of problems, and I will make the necessary accommodations.

The use of personal electronic devices is not allowed in the classroom, with the exception of a laptop computer for taking notes. If you need to make or receive a phone or text message, please leave the room while doing so. Please do not disturb other students with your personal communications. Using headphones during class time is not allowed.
