Considering Entrepreneurship?
The Jake Jabs Center offers graduate students three specialization options depending on the desired area of interest for both MBA & MS programs.

Entrepreneurship Specialization Requirements
Complete three courses from the list of Core and Electives below, and one Capstone. Courses are in-person unless otherwise specified with OL for online.

Core ENTP courses:
- ENTP 6000 Fundamentals of Entrepreneurship - Maymester
- ENTP 6642 Exploring Social Entrepreneurship - Fall
- ENTP 6807 Small Business Marketing and Personal Branding - Summer
- ENTP 6824 Entrepreneurial Finance (OL) - Fall
- ENTP 6826 International Entrepreneurship - Fall
- ENTP 6834 Entrepreneurial Marketing – Spring
- ENTP 6842 New Concept Development (OL) – Spring

Any ENTP 6000 or higher course except for 6801 or 6802

Elective ENTP courses:
- ENTP 6620 New Venture Operations and Project Management (OL) - Fall
- ENTP 6644 Social Entrepreneurship in the Developing World (OL) - Spring
- ENTP 6800 Venture Capital Investing – Spring 2014
- ENTP 6822 Legal and Ethical Issues of Entrepreneurship (OL) - Summer
- ENTP 6838 Real Estate for Entrepreneurs – Spring 2015
- ENTP 6848 Leadership in New Ventures (OL) – Fall

Any ENTP 6000 or higher course except for 6801 or 6802

Capstone ENTP courses:
- ENTP 6020 Business Plan and Seed Financing - Spring
- ENTP 6021 Corporate Entrepreneurship – Fall

Entrepreneurship Certificate: It is NOT necessary for you to be registered in a Masters or MBA program to obtain this certificate and the only requirement is that you have a Bachelor’s Degree. Complete any three courses from the list of Core, Electives, and Capstone.

Did you know…
- Jake Jabs Center classes have no prerequisites
- Classes at the Jake Jabs Center are taught by expert faculty and involve renowned guest speakers, including Jake Jabs, Rutt Bridges, and John Hickenlooper
- The Jake Jabs Center Advisory Council is closely involved with mentoring students
- Graduate ENTP classes count as electives in most graduate programs

Apply for Scholarships
The Jake Jabs Center has over $200,000 to award in scholarships. To apply, go to business.ucdenver.edu/scholarship

Registration Instructions
Log into UCDAccess, and select the following:

Institution: CU Denver
Campus: Extended Studies
Course Subject: ENTP