CU Denver Honor Code

As a member of the University of Colorado Denver community, I pledge to:

- Act with honesty and ethics in academia and in society by building mutual trust and responsibility as a foundation for lifelong integrity;
- Advance learning, knowledge, generation, and the free exchange of views and ideas as the lifeblood of academic freedom and of democracy;
- Embrace diversity and practice inclusion, showing civility, respect, and care toward ALL persons, standing up for the essential worth and dignity of every individual;
- Take responsibility for the consequences of my own actions and share responsibility for the well-being and safety of the community by also holding others similarly responsible.

I will honor these commitments in every part of my life.

Academic Integrity at CU Denver

All University of Colorado Denver students have the responsibility to know and observe the University's Academic Integrity Policy. To this end, CU Denver has created a Canvas course (Academic Integrity for Students) which covers concepts of academic integrity as well as the CU Denver Academic Integrity Policy. I am requiring you take this course providing a certificate of completion once you have successfully concluded the Canvas course.

What Does Academic Integrity Mean?

At CU Denver we advance knowledge by building on the work of other people. We are honest and accurate in creating all academic products and acknowledge the work (words AND ideas) of other's in a way which does not leave any doubt as to whose work it is. We do our own work on all assignments and quizzes/exams and only collaborate with others when given permission to do so by faculty. All students will take the responsibility to seek assistance to ensure that these standards are met.

Where Can You Turn for Help?

If you are ever unsure about any aspect of your academic work:

- First contact your faculty (or the TA);
- Academic Integrity Website for an overview of academic integrity process, with resources for faculty and students;
- Writing Center for assistance with learning to write academic documents, reviewing papers for discipline-specific writing standards, organization, argument, transitions, writing styles and citations;
