STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT

The Student Code of Conduct has been REVISED.

The University views the student conduct process as a learning and growth experience. It aims to repair harm and to increase our student's understanding of their responsibilities and privileges. Students are held to the Code of Conduct on- and off-campus. If you have concerns about a student's conduct, please share your concern with the SCCS.

DISRUPTIVE BEHAVIOR

Students are expected to engage appropriately in the academic setting. Disruption is defined as "behavior a reasonable faculty member would view as interfering with normal academic functions (teaching, learning, and research)." The SCCS is able to document and partner with the faculty member to address disruptive classroom behaviors.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

When admitted, students accept the responsibility to maintain the highest standards of intellectual honesty and ethical conduct in completing all forms of academic work. The University encourages the internal resolution of academic integrity matters, the SCCS will document the allegation and resolution. There are instances where the matter may be resolved through the use of the Academic Integrity Committee hearing process.

Dear Students,

THE LEARNING THAT IS DONE HERE, LEAVES HERE.
MAKE SURE IT IS YOUR OWN.

As academics, you are responsible to yourself, your industry, and this institution to act with integrity. CU Denver's rigorous course material is fundamental to our character and doing your own work is evidence of your character.

Review the Academic Integrity Policy to ensure you understand CU Denver's expectations of you as a student.
