

RJ Community Member Training

Become a trained Community Member to serve in CU Denver | Anschutz Medical Campus
Restorative Justice Circles

A principle of Restorative Justice is an acknowledgment that when harm occurs, the community is also impacted. It is important to include community members in RJ Circles.

CU Denver's Office of Student Conduct & Community Standards and CU Anschutz's Office of Adaptable Resolutions are partnering with The Conflict Center to train students and staff that are interested in serving in RJ Circles as Community Members.

The Conflict Center of Denver will be facilitating a 4-hr training to ensure our Community Members feel confident and prepared to participate in RJ Circles.

Event updates will be emailed to those that have RSVP'd!
