

CU Denver (Downtown Campus) Graduate International Credential Evaluation FAQs

CU Denver in-house credential evaluation

I would like CU Denver to complete my in-house credential evaluation. What documents are needed?

Once you submit the application, you will receive an email from CU Denver with country-specific document requirements. You can also visit the Graduate (Masters or Doctoral) Admissions Process webpage and click on the "Transcripts & Test Scores" tab to view the documentation requirements and how to submit documents.

Where do I have to submit my transcripts for my international credential evaluation?

You can submit your transcript with your application or email your transcript to intldocuments@ucdenver.edu.

Do I have to submit an official transcript for evaluation?

No. You can submit your unofficial transcript at the time of application. However, once you are fully admitted, you will need to provide official transcript(s) during your first semester of study at CU Denver. Please visit this webpage to understand our Document Verification process.

My institution does not issue transcripts in English. Do I need to submit English translations?

English translations are required for all documents issued in a language other than English.

If you are planning to have it translated in the US:

- We recommend finding ATA (American Translators Association) certified translators or ATA certified companies. You can find certified translator or company through the ATA website.

If you have your document translated by translators in your home country:

- Ensure the translation includes the certifier's name, signature, address, and date of certification.
- Here is a suggested translation format.

Do you accept my 3-year bachelor's degree?

Yes. CU Denver treats Indian 3-year bachelor's degrees as qualifying credentials for admission to graduate degree programs.

I would like to keep and use my CU Denver international credential evaluation for other purposes. Is that possible?

No. CU Denver international credential evaluations are the property of CU Denver and will be used for internal use only.

My courses and/or degree program are in progress. Can I submit my in-progress transcripts?

Yes. However, you will need to provide official final transcripts with degree completion information during the first semester of study at CU Denver. Please visit this webpage to understand our Document Verification process.

To send your official international transcripts:

- If sending via email or electronically, use intldocuments@ucdenver.edu.
 - If sending via mail, find the mailing address here.
 - If you prefer to bring the physical official transcript, you can submit it to CU Denver International Admissions.

Please contact International Admissions at intldocuments@ucdenver.edu for the ECE and WES CU Denver/Anschutz landing page link.

What documents do I need to submit to ECE or WES?

Please check the following links for documentation requirements and FAQs:

- ECE Documentation Requirements/FAQs
- WES Required Documents/FAQs

Where do I have to submit my transcripts for my international credential evaluation?

You will need to submit your official transcript to ECE or WES for their evaluation. However, if you submit your in-progress transcripts to ECE or WES, you will be required to submit your final official transcripts with degree completion information to CU Denver once you are admitted.

My institution does not issue transcripts in English. Do I need to submit English translations?

English translations are required for all documents issued in a language other than English. Please check the translation requirements on the ECE FAQs, and the WES FAQs.

ECE and/or WES requires official transcripts, but I cannot get my official transcripts. What should I do?

- ECE and WES each have several channels to accept official or original (ECE only) transcripts via mail or electronically directly from institutions or third parties (see below).
 - ECE accepts official transcripts from the following: Electronic Transcript Exchange

Registry (ETX), My eQuals, TrueCopy, and Worldwide Transcripts.

- More information is available here: ECE FAQs “Do you accept electronic documents?”
- If you have your original transcripts with you, ECE may be a good option because ECE evaluates original documents depending on countries/schools.
- More Information is available here: ECE Document Requirements and the ECE FAQs - Educational Documents Questions
- WES may already have a digital partnership with your institution. Please contact WES to see if your institution is partnered with WES. If so, your institution will send your official transcript to WES electronically. Please check the WES Document Requirements and FAQs

Please note that your official ECE or WES evaluation report(s) are considered as official transcript(s). You do not need to submit your official transcript(s) to CU Denver if you provide the official evaluation report(s).

My courses and/or degree program are in progress. Can I submit my in-progress transcripts to ECE or WES?

Yes. You can submit your in-progress transcript to ECE or WES for their evaluation. ECE or WES will evaluate your in-progress courses transcript. Please note that you will be required to submit a final official transcript with degree completion information to CU Denver once you are admitted.

I had an ECE or WES evaluation for my in-progress coursework when I applied to CU Denver, and now I have finished my degree program. Do I have to get an additional ECE or WES evaluation for the final coursework/degree?

No. You don't need to get an additional evaluation for your final coursework. You just need to send your official final transcript with degree completion information to CU Denver International Admissions.

Where should I send my final completed transcripts once I am admitted?

For Denver campus applicants, your final transcript(s)/degree certificate/diploma should be sent to CU Denver International Admissions once you are fully admitted during your first semester. Please visit this webpage to understand our Document Verification process.

I already sent my transcript to CU Denver when I submitted my application. Do I need to submit my transcript to ECE or WES as well?

Yes. You will need to submit the required documents to ECE or WES for their evaluation.

I already have an ECE or WES Course by Course evaluation report that I used when I applied for another institution. Can I use it to apply to CU Denver?

Yes. You can use the same report if you don't have any new international education credential(s) since you receive your evaluation report.

Can I use my unofficial copy of the evaluation reports?

Yes. You can use the unofficial copy of your evaluation report. However, once you are fully admitted, we will require an official report directly sent from ECE or WES. We consider the official evaluation report as an official copy of the transcripts. Make sure to send them your report along with your transcript copies that are already verified.

I am applying for an undergraduate program. Do I need an ECE or WES evaluation?

No. You do not require an ECE or WES evaluation to apply for our undergraduate programs.

Does ECE or WES recognize that my 3-year bachelor's degree from India is comparable to a US Bachelor's degree?

No, ECE or WES considers 3-year degrees from India to be comparable to 3 years of undergraduate study in the US. However, CU Denver treats Indian 3-year bachelor's degrees as qualifying credentials for admission to graduate degree programs. In these cases, CU Denver International Admissions will provide additional guidance for graduate departments so they will accept 3-year bachelor's degrees for admission.

How long does it take ECE to complete a report?
