

Renewed Eligibility after Total & Permanent Disability Discharge Physician Statement

Student Name: _____

Student ID: _____

The above referenced individual was previously determined to be totally and permanently disabled and received a discharge of federal student loan debt as the result of the determination. The borrower is requesting additional federal student loans from the U.S. Department of Education. Please respond to the following questions to assist with our determination of the student’s eligibility for federal student aid.

For federal student loan purposes, “totally and permanently disabled” is defined as the condition of an individual who:

- is unable to engage in substantial gainful activity by reason of a medically determinable physical or mental impairment that can be expected to result in death; has lasted for a continuous period of at least 60 months; or can be expected to last for a continuous period of at least 60 months, OR
- has been determined by the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) to be unemployable due to a service-connected disability.

Is the individual totally and permanently disabled and, therefore, unable to work and earn money?

- Yes. The individual identified above is unable to engage in substantial gainful activity in any field of work by reason of a medically determinable physical or mental impairment.
- No. The individual identified above is able to engage in substantial gainful activity.
