Student Responsibilities

1. Ensure that class schedule is accurate before Census Date.
2. Know policies related to drop and withdrawal deadlines as outlined on the CU Denver Academic (on CU Denver Registrar's website) and CU Denver Billing (on CU Denver Bursar's website) Calendars.
3. Meet with your Academic Advisor to discuss the circumstances out of your control, the impact of withdrawing from the course, and verify the required components for this petition.
4. Use official CU Denver student email account and ensure that information is received and emails are read in a timely fashion.
5. Understand the implications of a late withdrawal to one's own financial aid and other financial resources, including but not limited to Department of Veterans Affairs education benefits. Please speak to the Financial Aid Office and Veterans Student Services for more information.
6. Understand the implication of a late withdrawal to one's own immigration status. Please speak with the International Student and Scholar Services (ISSS) for more information.

Personal Statement: Instructions

1. No longer than 1 page in length.
2. Include a detailed explanation of the timeline and circumstances beyond your control leading to the Late Withdrawal Petition request.
 - a. Include a description of the circumstances themselves and why they are beyond your control.
 - b. Include any additional support you may need to succeed in future semesters.
3. Questions about these circumstances should be directed to your academic advisor and/or college advising office.

Additional Documentation: Instructions

1. If you are a College of Liberal Arts and Sciences (CLAS), Business School, School of Education and Human Development (SEHD), College of Arts and Media (CAM), School of Public Affairs (SPA), or College of Engineering, Design and Computing student, you are not required to submit any additional documentation. You may submit documentation if you believe it will support your petition to withdrawal from the course.
2. If you are a College of Architecture and Planning (CAP) student, you must submit additional documentation supporting the events that you describe in your personal statement. Examples of documents include:
 - a. Letter from a medical provider if withdrawal is related to medical concerns.
 - b. Proof of illness or death of family member or loved one.
 - c. Any other documentation that supports the reason for your withdrawal.
