Spring 2021 First-Year Experience Options

UNIV 1110: College Success (Condensed)

This FREE first-year course is condensed into one week prior to your Spring 2021 semester and introduces you to four primary goals, helping you learn the ins and outs of college life and get prepared for the challenges and opportunities ahead. In addition to developing academic skills and strategies, the class serves as your own first-year community on campus. You'll get added support and mentoring from faculty, staff, and peer leaders. By the end of the semester, you'll feel capable, confident, and ready for success.

Course times for Spring 2021: January 7th-14th, 9:00am-2:00pm

This class will be taught Remote Synchronously via Zoom for the Spring 2021 semester. More information on course formats can be found at the University of Colorado Denver's COVID-19 Dashboard at www.ucdenver.edu/coronoavirus.

UNIV 1112: Career and Major Exploration

This first-year course focuses on your career and major exploration journey at the University of Colorado Denver. This course focuses on a variety of areas, including: career preparation, leadership development, major exploration, and career-planning discussions. You'll also get added support throughout the semester by faculty, staff, and peer leaders. At the end of the course, students will feel more confident in their major path, their career preparation, and their connection to the campus community.

Course times for Spring 2021: Tuesdays from 2:00pm-3:15pm

This class will be taught Remote Synchronously via Zoom for the Spring 2021 semester. More information on course formats can be found at the University of Colorado Denver's COVID-19 Dashboard at www.ucdenver.edu/coronoavirus.
