

Colorado Clinical and Translational Sciences Institute (CCTSI)

UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO DENVER | ANSCHUTZ MEDICAL CAMPUS

Biography

Gordon Duvall has focused his lifework and career on serving the community by identifying and confronting high-risk behaviors. For over five years, Gordon delivered his advanced emergency nursing skills at Denver General Hospital, now Denver Health, one of the nation's top trauma centers. Gordon is well adapted at managing and coordinating a variety of professionals and non-professionals focusing on quality of care and access to coordinated services for people hurting and in need. Gordon provides high quality healthcare for troubled and incarcerated youth at Gilliam Youth Services Center, one of Colorado's Division of Youth

Corrections service facilities; while there, he coordinated teams of professionals developing and implementing holistic health programs for youth. Gordon received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Biology from Metropolitan State College, a Bachelor of Science in Nursing from Regis University, a Master's of Science in Nursing from the University of Colorado Health Sciences Center, and a Doctor of Nursing Practice degree from Regis University. Gordon Duvall is a pediatric nurse practitioner, fatherhood practitioner, minister, educator, father and community activist who has been involved in community organizing through MOP in Denver, Colorado, which now is called Together Colorado. Gordon Duvall is a Denver native, a graduate of George Washington High School, Regis University, The University of Colorado Health Sciences Center, and the 2008 Class of the African American Leadership Institute. He is an avid motorcycle enthusiast and one of the founding members of the Road Warriors Motorcycle Club.