Biography

Lorenzo J. Ramirez has worked for the past 20 years as a health and wellness advocate in Denver's Latino community. Currently, Mr. Ramirez serves as a Community Liaison for LUCHAR (Latinos Using Cardio Health Actions to Reduce Risk) through the CCTSI Community Engagement Core. This role includes working as an Assistant Coordinator for the Colorado Immersion Training in Community Engagement Program for the Urban Latino Track. Mr. Ramirez also serves as the Assistant Coordinator for Denver Health Medical Center's Por Tu Corazon Program (which is focused on Latino cardio vascular health education and research). Mr. Ramirez serves on the Board of Directors for Servicios de La Raza, Inc. (one of Denver's oldest Latino human services agencies), as a member of the National Latino AIDS Action Network (NLAAN) Leadership Committee and as the Artistic Director of the award winning Grupo Folklorico Sabor Latino, Inc., Colorado's premier Folklorico Dance Company.
