

Colorado Clinical and Translational Sciences Institute (CCTSI)

UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO DENVER | ANSCHUTZ MEDICAL CAMPUS

Biography

May Tran is CCTSI Community Research Liaison for the Asian/Refugee communities in Denver, Colorado. Fluent in four languages (Chinese-Cantonese, Vietnamese, French, and English), and as a boat refugee herself, May has a passion to help the Vietnamese and Chinese communities in Denver by utilizing her networking skills and languages. She was born in a Chinese family, lived in Viet Nam, went to a private French School, and graduated Magna Cum Laude from Metropolitan University in Computer Management Science.

She is a Board of Director for Sisters Enterprise Random Acts of Kindness Non-Profit Organization, and a Board of Director for The Pearl Foundation. May also performs classical piano to the senior citizens in Denver metro areas. In her spare time, she likes to paint some art works. As a Community Research Liaison, she is able to build relationships and connect the dots between the researchers and the diverse Asian communities.