UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO DENVER

CU Denver Faculty Assembly Bylaws Revised - Fall 2025

Preamble

A guiding principle of shared governance, as recognized by the Board of Regents of CU Denver, is that the faculty and the administration shall collaborate in major decisions affecting the academic welfare of the University. The nature of this collaboration, shared as appropriate with students and staff, varies according to the nature of the matters under consideration.

The mission of the CU Denver Faculty Assembly is to represent faculty on campus in shaping the structure and development of the University through shared governance. The CU Denver Faculty Assembly initiates, advises, and recommends action to the Chancellor, Provost, and other administrative officials on matters related to educational policy, planning, and faculty affairs while ensuring that faculty at CU Denver are both fully informed and as fully engaged in shared governance as possible.

These Bylaws and the Standing Rules of CU Denver Faculty Assembly, which enumerate the faculty's rights, privileges, and responsibilities, provide a system for participation of the CU Denver campus faculty in the governance of the University as specified by the Laws of the Regents of CU Denver.
