Funding

Funding of AAC devices in the state of Colorado must go through the hierarchy below. If funding is not available at one level, the IFSP team will move down to the next level to determine the most appropriate source of funding for the device.

* Note: Any device purchased with Part C funds will have to be returned when the child is no longer eligible for Part C funds, at age 3.

The following list of resources will help you learn more general information about funding AAC devices:

- AAC Funding Help - This website posts information about programs that cover and provide funding for augmentative and alternative communication (AAC) devices.
- AAC Funding in Public Schools – Lew Golinker of the AT Law Center (posted by the AAC-RERC) explains the factors that influence this decision.
- AAC Institute Funding – Funding a Speech Generating Device (SGD): What YOU Need to Know!
- AT Funding Sources – a searchable online database tool. It is provided to assist Coloradoans with disabilities in locating needed funding to purchase AT devices and services for their specific needs.

The following resources were developed by AAC vendors, so they are often used to promote funding only of devices that they manufacture, but they can also provide valuable information.
