The Science of Patient Centered Decisions: An ACCORDS Seminar Series

Thursday
November 29, 2018
12:00-1:00
Education 2 North
Room 1206
Anschutz Medical Campus

“The Psychology of Shared Decision Making”

Participants will be able to:

1. Define key terms and objectives related to shared decision making
2. Explain how psychological biases can influence patient preferences and facilitate or interfere with effective shared decision making

Laura Scherer, PhD

Assistant Professor, Department of Cardiology and
The VA Denver COIN

Dr. Scherer is an experimental social psychologist who studies medical decision making and patient preferences. Her research addresses cognitive and emotional biases in decision making and the implications for utilization of low-value care, and strategies for increasing appropriate use.
